

The New Apostolic concept of ministry as of Pentecost 2019

Zurich. For some time, it has been clear that the international president of the New Apostolic Church, Chief Apostle Jean-Luc Schneider, will address the members of the Church personally in a video address. He will do so in English, French, and German.

“I am aware that this represents a significant change to our tradition.” With these words Chief Apostle Jean-Luc Schneider concludes his video address on our concept of ministry. “It will certainly take some time to become accustomed to it.” However, he is absolutely convinced, he says, that this reform will have beneficial effects for the Church.

Why do we need the Ministerial Structure?
During the course of the "Digital Agenda", the Ministerial Structure was reorganized in order to ensure that the responsibilities of the Ministers and the Ministers of State are clearly defined and coordinated. This ensures that the government can react quickly and flexibly to the changing requirements of the digital society. The Ministerial Structure is thus an essential part of the government's strategy for the digital future. It ensures that the responsibilities of the Ministers and the Ministers of State are clearly defined and coordinated. This ensures that the government can react quickly and flexibly to the changing requirements of the digital society.
