

Düsseldorf. "Take a look!" is the name of the international photo contest for the European Youth Day of the New Apostolic Church, which is scheduled to take place in Düsseldorf from 21 to 24 May 2009. The company EPSON-Germany was secured as a partner for this campaign, and will award interesting prizes for the best submissions. The contest is open to everyone who plans to attend the Youth Day.

The photo contest specifies three categories: "Christ, my future", "Youth, nature, and environment", and "Youth and handicapped people". Every participant can send in a maximum of three photos, one photo per category. Prizes will be awarded in the course of the European Youth Day. The best photos in each category will be on display from 22 to 23 May in the event halls.

Contest rules and other information about the "Take a look!" photo contest can be found on the website of the EYD-2009.

10 February 2009