

Zurich/Hamburg. At the end of May, the international leader of the New Apostolic Church, Chief Apostle Dr. Wilhelm Leber, will visit the District Churches of Northern Germany for this year's feast of Pentecost. Over 60 Apostles from within Europe and the countries served from Europe are expected to attend the celebration with him. The highlight will be the divine service in the Hamburg Congress Centre, which will be transmitted to more than 60 countries, such as South Africa, White Russia, the Baltic region, and the Nordic countries by satellite. The service will be transmitted to all continents.

A European Apostle Meeting is scheduled to take place over the days preceding Pentecost. The Apostles will discuss topics that are currently of relevance in the Church. On the Saturday before Pentecost, a concert has been scheduled in the Hamburg Congress Centre.

The New Apostolic Church has published another press release.

21 May 2007

Pentecost divine service of the New Apostolic Church on Sunday, 27 May 2007

Zürich/Hamburg. At the end of May, the international leader of the New Apostolic Church, Chief Apostle Wilhelm Leber, will visit the Holy Church of Mother Geneva for his year's feast of Pentecost. Over 50 Apostles from 16th Europe and the countries served from Europe are expected to attend the anniversary with him. The largest will be the divine service in the Hamburg-Cathedral, which will be broadcasted in 20 countries, such as South Africa, White Russia, the Balkan region, and the Nordic countries by satellite. The service will be transmitted in 40 languages.

A European Apostles Meeting is scheduled to take place over the days preceding Pentecost. The Apostles will discuss topics that are especially of importance to the Church, such as their daily pastoral mission. A similar has been scheduled in the Hamburg-Cathedral. The members of the large Hamburg churches and parishes that have already been preparing for the special performance for this occasion. The very presence of the head chief for the New Apostolic Church are also practicing diligently already. In addition, the children's choir, the organists, and some individual artists have also been preparing themselves for the occasion.

Numerous preparations, both large and small, are still underway. Here are just a few of them: writing materials, liturgical vestments, and distribution of gifts. During liturgical services, special efforts, such as a special service for ongoing missions, ensuring the technical needs are met, and the final preparations for the anniversary, are still being made.

The multilingual Pentecost experience (multilingual divine service) will be held in the main church in that the invited guests from across Europe will all be speaking their French, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish, German, or Greek mother tongue.

Pentecost greeting on the Internet

For this year's Pentecost, Chief Apostle Dr. Wilhelm Leber has recorded a message of greeting on the Internet. It is the talk about the significance of Pentecost, and about the solidarity that in the church calendar represents for New Apostolic Christians around the world. The Pentecost greeting can be viewed in both German and English at