Chief Apostle Leber visits Cleveland

There are 13 days until until Chief Apostle Leber visits Cleveland!!

welcome

The New Apostolic Church will welcome Chief Apostle Wilhelm Leber to Cleveland, Ohio in March 2007. This will be a special weekend for us in that Chief Apostle Hermann Niehaus last visited in 1909. We greatly anticipate his coming!

Ordinations planned in Maracay and Cleveland

The Cleveland website

Cleveland. As reported before, Chief Apostle Wilhelm Leber will conduct two Services in Cleveland, Ohio on the first weekend of March. Prior to these services he will visit the congregation in Maracay, Venezuela on Sunday, February 25th and in Florida on Wednesday, February 28th.

In a letter to the congregations, District Apostle Richard Freund (NAC USA) writes as follows: "During the visit to Venezuela, Bishop Pulido will be retired and the present District Elder Jose-Rafael Lara-Tovar will be ordained into the Bishop ministry. When our Chief Apostle is in Cleveland he will place the now District Elder Ron Whited into the Bishop ministry to assist Apostle Kolb in the Buffalo, Cleveland and Erie Districts. The Cleveland services will be available to all of us via transmission."
