Apostle Reinhard Jabs passed away

Zurich. After a brief but serious illness, Apostle Reinhard Jabs has passed away at the age of 48. He is survived by his wife and three children. Reinhard Jabs was ordained an apostle in April 2002, and his working area included districts in Canada and India. Chief Apostle Wilhelm Leber has expressed his warm sympathy to the family.

Apostle
Reinhard Jabs
was already ordained a sub-deacon at the young age of 17. Of this the chief
apostle said:

"Over the 33 years of his time in ministry Apostle Jabs served the Lord with his whole heart. With great love he cared for the souls in his care, and he worked with great blessing in close oneness with his bearers of blessing."

District Apostle Leslie Latorcai will conduct the funeral for Apostle Jabs in our church in Kitchener on Thursday, 15 September 2005.
