

The New Apostolic community

Across cultures and generations. New Apostolic Christians are united by the goal of finding acceptance at the return of Jesus Christ. And this hope shapes the worldwide congregation as well as the congregation outside our own front door.

How do North and South, West and East come together? How do young and old, poor and rich, and the sick and healthy interact? Where does the Church stand within Christianity and society? Answers to these questions can be found in the articles in this category.
