

Startseite > Media

New Apostolic media

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations.” The gospel, the good news, is no longer spread from mouth to mouth alone. Nowadays, very different media are in use.

On which channels does the New Apostolic Church broadcast? What information does it provide? And what possibilities are there to share it?

Answers to these questions can be found in the other articles in this category.

In a nutshell:

The New Apostolic Church maintains two websites: one presenting the formal organisation, the other showcasing the community of believers. Several magazines serve different target groups. A series of apps point the way to our doctrine, the latest information, or the nearest church. Divine services are broadcast via satellite and internet. Forums can be found in the large social networking sites.

→ Websites

→ Apps

→ Broadcast

→ Press service

→ Magazines

→ Social media

→ Digital library