Questions to God

We have many questions, and God will not answer all of them. He does not explain everything we would like to know. He does not tell us everything we would like to understand.

But the good Lord does tell us everything we need to know to reach our goal. We have many wishes, and that is normal. The good Lord does not give us everything we would like to have. He does not fulfil all of our wishes. But He gives us everything we need to reach the goal.

If God wants to give us something, if He wants to tell us something, we come to Him. We hear His word, we receive Holy Communion, and we accept the servants He sends us. He gives us what we need. We trust Him. We listen to what He tells us, and we take what He gives us.
