Lisbon. The New Apostolic Church in Portugal has presented itself on its own website since the end of 2008. As a result, we can now also give our Portuguese-speaking readers some insight into the doctrine and organisation of the Church. For tourists the site also features the addresses of all congregations in Portugal, along with a current monthly calendar of events.

www.igrejanovaapostolica.org – This site will be interesting for all who wish to learn more about the work of the New Apostolic Church in Portugal. The Church has been conducting divine services in the country since 1981. In the meantime the Church has grown to approximately 7,000 members in 32 congregations around the country. At the start of November 2008, Chief Apostle Wilhelm Leber conducted a divine service in Lisbon (we reported).
