Zurich. The New Apostolic Church, or “Chiesa Neo-Apostolica,” as it is known in Italy, now has a new website. Its modernised homepage is identical in layout to the website of the New Apostolic Church Switzerland.

The New Apostolic Church in Italy has already been online for seven years. It was time to adapt the old homepage to today’s standards, and give it a younger, more modern look, according to the press release of the Church administration.

The homepage www.cnaitalia.org has appeared in its new format as of August 2007. The editing process has also been improved in order to allow articles to be more quickly updated.
