

New Apostolic Church
International

Home > Church > Bulletin board > NAC France has a new website

NAC France has a new website

Metz. "Bienvenue sur le nouveau site de l'Eglise néo-apostolique de France" – the New Apostolic Church in France has opened its new website as of today.

The new layout has been organised according to international guidelines, in conformance with the corporate identity of the Church. Some of the content is also new. The search for New Apostolic congregations should prove especially interesting for tourists and visitors to the country.

See for yourself: www.e-n-a.org/.

8 March 2006