NAC Bangkok has its own website

Bangkok. "Welcome to the website of the New Apostolic Church Bangkok Congregation, Thailand" says the friendly invitation recently posted online at www.nac-bangkok.com.

News articles on this site are available in Thai as well as in English and German translation. The site features addresses and service times, as well as special events and activities, some insights into the congregational life of the region, and links to other church addresses throughout Thailand and South East Asia. Vacationers will find it of particular interest to take a look at the ground plan indicating the exact location of the various congregations.
