

Home > Church > Bulletin board > First divine service in a new home congregation

First divine service in a new home congregation

Zurich. Retired Chief Apostle Richard Fehr was joyfully welcomed in his new home congregation of Zurich-Hottingen, where he will attend the services from now on.

District Apostle Armin Studer, who is responsible for the District Church of Switzerland, had made a special visit to the congregation in order to introduce the esteemed retiree to the congregation. On Thursday, 26 May 2005, District Apostle Studer conducted a divine service in Zurich-Hottingen in the company of Apostles Bernhard Meier and Rudolf Schneider.

At the end of the service he called retired Chief Apostle Fehr to the altar so that he could introduce him as a new member of the congregation.

For more details and photos, visit: www.nak.ch/news/news05_4-gb.html#050605.

6 June 2005