

Apostle Likoko has passed away

Apostle Enos Omutoko Likoko passed away on 31 July 2022 at his home following a long illness. He was the responsible Apostle for Kenya South Coast. He contributed immensely to the growth of the New Apostolic congregations in East Africa, District Apostle Opemba Ekhuya writes and says: “He will be greatly missed.”

Apostle Likoko was born on 5 May 1959 in Kenya and grew up in a God-fearing family. Through a friend he learned of the New Apostolic Church and was baptised and sealed on 5 July 1987. On 14 November 1987 he was ordained as a Priest. Further ministerial functions followed. Chief Apostle Fehr ordained him as an Apostle on 28 May 2001.

“We intercede in heartfelt prayer for the bereaved family, especially for his wife, Margaret Anyienda, and his five children with their families, as well as for the many others who are grieving. May our heavenly Father give them much comfort, strength, and confidence in these difficult hours of parting.”

4 August 2022