

Apostle takes some load off District Apostle Helper's shoulders

Apostel Carsten Denker

District Evangelist Carsten Denker has been ordained as an Apostle for the northern areas of the New Apostolic Church Western Germany. He has taken over from Stefan Pöschel, who has been assisting District Apostle Rainer Storck as District Apostle Helper since December 2022.

Apostle Carsten Denker (born 1972) was baptised one month after his birth and received the sacrament of Holy Sealing three days later. He has served as a minister in Minden since 2011 and was ordained a District Evangelist in 2019. He is married to Janin Denker and they have two children. He works in marketing and sales.

Carsten Denker received the Apostle ministry in a divine service on 30 July in Neunkirchen, Germany.
