

Two new Apostles ordained for Pakistan

The names of the two new Apostles whom Chief Apostle Jean-Luc Schneider ordained on 3 November 2024 are Kashif Gill and Nabeel Rustam.

The hitherto Shepherd Kashif Gill was born in 1984 and was previously employed in the teaching profession. From now on he will care for the brothers and sisters in the Lahore-Narowal district in Pakistan on a full-time basis. He is married and, in addition to Urdu, he also speaks English.

The previous District Evangelist Nabeel Rustam was ordained for the district of Rawalpindi, whose current Apostle Nadeem Mustaq is scheduled to retire in 2025. The former banker was born in 1986, is married, and has three children. He speaks Punjabi, Urdu, and English.
