

A District Apostle Helper for South America

The New Apostolic Church in South America will receive a District Apostle Helper. The assignment is scheduled for this coming Sunday.

This weekend, Chief Apostle Jean-Luc Schneider is visiting the Argentinian capital Buenos Aires. The assignment of Herman Ernst Guigou as District Apostle Helper is planned for the divine service on 30 March 2025.

Apostle Guigou was born on 16 March 1966 in Colonia del Sacramento (Uruguay) and grew up in a New Apostolic home. He received his first ministry in 1985 as a Sub-deacon. He was ordained an Apostle in 2011 and has been responsible for the New Apostolic Christians in Uruguay since then. He is married and has one daughter.

The new District Apostle Helper will work closely with District Apostle Enrique Eduardo Minio (64). His working area includes Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Paraguay, and Uruguay.
