

New position to be filled at NACI

The New Apostolic Church International is creating an editorial position as part of its forward planning and realignment.

The main focus of the post advertised is the management of the Divine Service Guide Working Group. The advert is aimed specifically at academics from the humanities or social sciences with strong writing and editing skills.

Due to the international nature of the work, relevant experience and multilingualism are also required.

2 février 2024

Editor Work Group Divine Service Guide 228.85kb